

West Midlands Folk Federation

Founded in 1965

Application to join

The objectives of the Federation are set out in the Constitution of the Federation, a copy of which will be available with this application form. Each applicant should read this Constitution and agree with the principles contained in it before completing the application form below and returning it to the Secretary of the West Midlands Folk Federation (WMFF) (see address below).

Your application will be discussed at the next meeting of the West Midlands Folk Federation Executive Committee or open meeting (you may be invited to attend that meeting where proposers and yourselves may be called on to talk about your application). The annual subscription would be due as soon as the club is accepted into WMFF and thereafter each January. You would be entitled to vote at meetings once the Club is accepted and the subscription has been received.

We look forward to receiving your application.
